Welcome ... from the Festival Director

The eager anticipation we all feel as the Festival gets closer, has turned into real excitement as the 64th Sidmouth FolkWeek Festival gets underway.

This year is going to be a real blockbuster with terrific lineups everywhere and excellent facilities to give the real Festival experience and vibe that is Sidmouth. Add in the seaside, the Town laden with flowers and the fabulous coastline and, as Colin Irwin says, "There are festivals....and there's Sidmouth. Still uniquely glorious and gloriously unique..."

For newcomers to the event and our regulars, we are delighted to have you with us. With 750+ events listed, there is everything you could wish for from a festival. It's just deciding what to go to and when. Our tip: spend ½ hour with the daily events section which follows, check the artist profiles along the way and, Eureka!, you've just created your own personal festival! Oh, and you may want a few extra tickets!

This has been an investment year too with better access facilities at the Campsite, Bulverton and the Car Park to improve your experience, as well as the usual superb main venues. And that's where you will find a new range of fine ales from Wickwar Wessex Brewing Company of Gloucestershire.

The Ham Concert venue is, as usual, the jewel in the concert crown with Folk Awards Winners and Nominees aplenty. Bulverton Festival Clubhouse brings the raw excitement of the best bands in the country in a unique venue setting. This year there are even more special shows, particularly at the Manor Pavilion, but also around the Festival.

We are delighted to be back in the Kennaway Cellar bar with a full programme. Rising stars always gets a chance at Cellar Full of Folkadelia – home to emerging artists, plus new talent with EFDSS's Folk Rising Plus in the mornings at the Bedford.

If all that isn't enough, you could just rush off to the Pre-Festival shows, 250+ workshops, the delightful Children's Festival, Youth sessions, In The Tradition, ceilidhs, a huge folk dance programme, storytelling and a superb dance sides line-up. With all this to see and take part in, you are going to need at least some sleep and decent footwear.

The FolkWeek Festival is a massive undertaking, which couldn't happen without our many supporters, businesses, the three Councils and partner organisations including fRoots, EFDSS, Creative Scotland, Hobgoblin and Halsway Manor. We are also particularly grateful to our local and new sponsors – thanks for your support. Making it happen though relies on our 500 volunteers and the core team – thank you too.

Sidmouth welcomes you to another great Festival. Enjoy every moment and savour your memories to bring you back in 2019 for the 65th!

John Braithwaite
Festival Director

Plastics Campaign

This year the Festival is reducing the use of plastic in all areas. Please help us by reusing glasses, bringing your own tankards and using refillable water bottles, which are also on sale at the Souvenir stalls.

Get On Board The Sidmouth FolkWeek Express!

WITH OVER 750 events to choose from, expect an action-packed week! Take it at your own pace – from dawn 'til dawn immersion in concerts, dances and workshops (over 250 of them, with plenty for beginners), or a casual toe-dip into selected events, making extra time for bonus seaside holiday activities provided by this beautiful location!

The following daily programme pages are a guide to creating your own customised festival experience. Read on here for a small taste of what's special for 2018.

Unmissable shows, specially commissioned for the festival, include: Living By The Sea – a folk-style Greek chorus of festival-goers directed by former Transports allies Matthew Crampton, Paul Sartin, Benji Kirkpatrick and Saul Rose – takes us on a trip amidst those whose lives are governed by the sea. And The Year Turns Round Again is a new performance telling a story through dance and song, inspired by the cycle of the seasons.

Big 2018 concert names include Eliza Carthy & The Wayward Band; one of the finest exponents of traditional Irish song, Cara Dillon, BBC Folk Award Singer Of The Year Karine Polwart, and, a new direction for the world-renowned piper Kathryn Tickell.

Some very special dance nights in Blackmore Gardens Marquee include The Valiant Dance Band with five terrific step dancers, and a glamorous 10th birthday celebration of PolkaWorks with their Frocks and Shoes Ceilidh.

Yet more celebration: we are proud to welcome back Anglo-European pioneers Blowzabella, marking their 40th aniversary year, as well as Vintage Cock & Bull Band, with original members Jean-Pierre Rasle and Dave Whetstone, for a great Euro Ceilidh Party.

At the Manor, there are some very special 'In Conversation' events including Billy Bragg talking to Colin Irwin about his best-selling book Roots, Radicals And Rockers, charting the history, impact and legacy of Britain's first indigenous pop movement, skiffle. Peggy Seeger talks to Sandra Kerr about her memoir The First Time Ever, covering her childhood, career and life.

Fancy folk dancing? In 2018, we have a plethora of styles to explore. This week you can try American Squares and Contras, Scandinavian, Balkan, Irish Set, Regency, Playford, and Kerry Fletcher's ever popular Eurodance workshops!

Keeping a firm eye on the future, the 2018 programme is jam-packed with young talent! We are thrilled to be joined by the brilliant National Youth Folk Ensemble (NYFE) in concert, as recently heard on Radio 4's Front Row. The popular Folk Rising Plus series returns, thanks to EFDSS. Discover some staggeringly talented young players and singers this week, including Cohen Braithwaite-Kilcoyne, Ryan Young, Megan Wisdom and, if you missed them, 2017 favourites Alden, Patterson and Dashwood.

Our own Youth Festival is a breeding ground for some of that next generation talent. Join with Shooting Roots and Stream Of Sound for brilliant workshop sessions for 12-17s. This year also sees a return of the excellent Highlands' Feis Rois Ceilidh Trail, NYFE and some brilliant sessions, workshops and Open Mics for all-comers.

Guaranteed fun and quality for your own young folks takes place at the Children's Festival. Soak up the festive atmosphere of Blackmore Gardens during the day, and head out to the Family Evening Shows before bedtime!

For some brilliantly Big Nights Out from 7pm 'til 1.30am, take a festival bus, or park at the nearby festival car park, for some 2018-style roots party nights at The Bulverton, with Police Dog Hogan, Elephant Sessions and False Lights and more, plus LNEs each night.

Out of the ordinary? Come along to the Hub for some beastly competition at the Sidmouth Horse Trials; to the hilarious Folk Quiz; fRoots' Cellarful of Folkadelia afternoon series to hear some brand new sounds or to be amazed at the standard of dancing at the legendary John Gasson Jig Competition!

Find the heart of the tradition at Woodlands Hotel, in sessions with the likes of The Rowsome Family, Hector Riddell, Roisin White and Will Noble.

Whatever your choices, enjoy your Sidmouth FolkWeek 2018!

FolkWeek Fringe

Sidmouth's "Festival Fringe" is a part of the FolkWeek experience, complementing the main Festival but not organised by it, so not responsible for what takes place – but many enjoy participating, or just taking in the atmosphere.

All Fringe events are free – but make a collection for the Festival. If you are having a good time, please drop a pound coin or two into the Collection tin now and then.

Here is a rough guide of what goes on, plus places where things could happen:

Song sessions

Middle Bar Singers: Upstairs at the Anchor to drink, laugh and sing. Unaccompanied singarounds are from 12.30-3pm and 8-11pm each day, starting on Thursday, the day before the Festival officially starts. Tuesday evening is usually a shanty fundraiser for Sidmouth Lifeboat and Thursday pm the singers jump into the sea and carry on singing: opposite the Bedford Hotel at 3pm.

Royal York and Faulkner: Morning singarounds with Kitty Vernon and Tim Edwards and evening sessions with a variety of hosts now appear in the main programme schedules.

The Gloom, Doom and Despondency Competition is on Thursday at 4.30pm.

Esplanade Shelter: West Gallery Music sessions from Monday to Thursday, 1-2pm (Sunday 11-12pm). Opposite Bedford Lawn Car Park.

Music sessions

Anchor Inn: In the main bar (street level).
Bedford Hotel Bar: A mixture of music and song. From Friday all day, every day.
Swan Inn: music sessions all day.
Radway Inn: English music session lunchtimes and evenings, starting Friday.

Dance

On the Esplanade outside the Royal York and Faulkner Hotel.

Wild Thyme Border Morris (with Sue White) is for all, including complete beginners: 11am-noon starting Monday.

Herbaceous Border (with Kurt Sauter) for more experienced dancers, preferably in kit: 6-7pm starting Sunday. Musicians welcome for each group.

Street Performers

Please note that licensing arrangements and street closures for FolkWeek limit use of the Market Square in particular, and unprogrammed performers could be moved on.

Looking for somewhere to perform?

There are 2 large Festival Performance spaces on the Esplanade at York Steps and opposite the Bedford Hotel. Apart from scheduled sessions by Festival dance teams, if you play acoustically, sing or dance, please make use of the opportunity these spaces provide.

Dukes has Open Mic sessions from 3pm-6pm, also try the Black Horse or Volunteer in the afternoons and evenings.

Collections

Sidmouth FolkWeek Ltd (Registered Charity 1111958) has obtained the street licence from East Devon District Council to collect in Sidmouth during FolkWeek. Street collections from performances are an important part of FolkWeek's income. If you are busking as musicians, singers or a dance team, please register your name and collect an official tin or bucket from Collections Office in the Festival Centre, Sidmouth C of E Primary School, Vicarage Road just above the Radway cinema, on the opposite side of the road. Tins or buckets can be collected and returned between the hours of 9.30am and 6pm, or up to 7.30pm by special arrangement with the Collections Office. Please make sure that all tins are returned by 6pm on the last Friday evening, prior to the Torchlight Procession.

Special Arrangements for the Torchlight Procession: Please collect buckets for the Torchlight Procession from the Collections Office by 7pm. After the procession please return the buckets to the rendezvous point on Bedford Lawn car park.

The Bill Rutter Collections Awards

Bill Rutter, Sidmouth Festival Director from 1961-79, encouraged everyone to participate and become part of the Festival team. The Festival has a long tradition of busking from all kinds of musicians, dancers, singers and artists. The award is presented to the dance team which collects the highest amount during the festival and is keenly contested. In addition, a second award is made to the group of musicians, singers or storytellers who collect the most during the week. The presentations will take place during LNE at the Bulverton Marquee around midnight on the final Friday.

Volunteers

An integral part of Sidmouth Folk Week are our volunteers, and we massively value their contributions before, during and after the week.
Volunteering roles include staffing the box offices, venue stewarding, charity collecting, helping at the Children's Festival, (wo)manning the Campsite and many more...
In return for 5 hours a day, Volunteers get a Week Ticket, free camping, food discounts, subsidised Festival bus travel and hopefully new friends and experiences.
We are always on the lookout for new volunteers and if you are interested please get in touch.
Either visit our website, email volunteers@sidmouthfolkweek.co.uk or pop in to the Volunteer office and chat with Sue and her team.

Volunteers are based at:
Sidmouth Primary School, Vicarage Road, Sidmouth, EX10 8UG

FolkWeek offers over 250 workshops!

Some run all week, offering progressive courses, some are one off tasters.

Beginners are well catered for with series on Melodeon, Fiddle, Bodhran, Bones, Tin Whistle and specially tailored dance workshops to get you started.

Dancers can enjoy a range of styles including European, Scandinavian, Balkan, Irish Set, Appalachian and Cornish as well American Squares and Contras, English Country Dance, Regency Dance and Early Dance. Or try Cotswold, North West or Border Morris or Rapper Dance, Social Stepping or Molly Dance.

Plenty for musicians too; fiddle, guitar, brass, whistle, flute, percussion, accordion, concertina, uilleann pipes, pipe and tabor and more. Join The Big Band playing for ceilidh, the Concert Band, play West Gallery Music or try Medieval Music.

Singers are not neglected, with two series of choir workshops plus Shapenote, Traditional Song, Gregorian Chant, Rounds and more.

There's a variety of Storytelling Workshops and Talks covering Song Collection, Carnival Morris, Gypsy Caravans, Mummers and Dry Stone Walling.

Something different? Try Beast Making, Writing Funny Stuff, Theory for Folkies, Mumming or the new Poetry sessions.

Workshop Ticket

Admission £10 on the door for most individual workshops (£12 for some longer workshops and £8 for some shorter workshops). Alternatively, a book of 6 workshop passes can be bought either from the Festival Box Office or at the door of workshop venues.

The pass costs £50 for 6 workshops (of any length/ price) and can be 'traded in' at all workshops marked with a W in the event listing.

Workshop Showcases

Several of the workshop series lead to a showcase event at the end of the week. This is clarified in the individual programme entries.

Youth Workshops at Sidmouth:

Shooting Roots

For everyone aged 12-17

We're always saying summer is just around the corner, and now it's finally here! With youth workshops run for young people by young people, Shooting Roots is a fab place for 12-17 year olds to meet people and make new friends while exploring the coolest parts of folk, and adding a dash of Shooting Roots madness to Sidmouth Folk Week. Whether you're exploring folk for the first time or have been doing it for years, each workshop will have something in it for you. The tutors are an assortment of talented and enthusiastic young people who you'll see throughout the week enjoying the festival and whose job it is to make sure everyone is made to feel welcome in our fun, friendly and inclusive workshops. All our participants have the opportunity to take part in our Friday showcase and dance out – a fantastic way to end a fun and intense week!

This year there is an exciting array of youth workshops and performances around the festival, from our friends Stream Of Sound, to NYFE, and Feis Rois and more. So bring your friends, your ideas or simply yourself! This is your chance to make Sidmouth your own, and join together with other young people for a week of folky fun which keeps dozens of participants coming back year after year. See you there!

A taster of children's events from the Children's Programme

Look forward to a great week of activities, fun and entertainment to keep children and families happy and smiling. Young people can take their first steps on musical and dance journeys, or pick up the journey where they left it last year. Also there are lots of craft activities and many other things to do. The evening family shows are legendary for providing super entertainment. This year includes Circus, Story, Song, Puppetry, not to mention the fabulous Stomping Ceilidh on Thursday evening. Check the programme and make sure you don't miss out on great shows. During the day there is a huge range of activities on offer for young people to enjoy, and the most cost effective way is to buy a Children's Festival Season Ticket, which gives priority access to all events in the Children's Programme (space permitting).

Have a great week.

Ray and Bev Langton, Children's Festival Producers

A MUSICAL JOURNEY

With something for each age group the Musical Journey encourages all youngsters to join the journey at whichever point suits them. There are Action Songs, Sing Along Songs, Percussion and Rhythms for the under 4s. For 5-7 year olds, there is the Junior Choir, Minims Beginners Band and the Didgeridoo Workshop. For over 8s the Sidmouth Songswell choir and, of course, the amazing Seaside Stompers Ceilidh Band, which works hard to learn the tunes to play for the Stomping Ceilidh in Blackmore Gardens Marquee on Thursday evening.

DANCING AND MOVING

For under 4s there is Yoga, Jungle Jiggle and Woodland Wiggle. 5-7 year olds can Dance Round the Maypole, relax with Yoga or Ceilidh Dance together. Over 8s can learn some Rapper Dancing, Appalachian Clog, or join in Border Morris Dancing.

MAKING AND DOING

Under 4s have Colour and Create, Creative Workshops for Children and Teddies' Hospital whilst 5-7 year olds can choose from Crazy Crafts, Happy Hattery, Pottery, Windsocks, Gargoyles and Mobiles. Over 8s have the ever-popular Craft Carousel, Pottery Workshops and Merlin's Mob for drama activities. Families can join in the Children's Festival Torchlight Processional Build and make something spectacular to carry in the torchlight procession.

DAILY ENTERTAINMENT IN BLACKMORE GARDENS

Every day there will be performances on the Garden Stage featuring stunning Young Performers. The Gardens will also feature dance displays, walkabout and pop up entertainment. There will be family ceilidh dancing, a Do It Yourself Puppet Booth, the Amazing Marble Maze, the knitting circle and face painting.

Collection of pre-booked tickets

All-In-One, All-In-One Weekend, Bulverton-In-One, Week, Weekend, Day and Camping ticket purchasers will be sent a receipt which is then exchanged for tickets on arrival in Sidmouth. The receipt shows which collection point you have chosen: Festival Box Office or Campsite. On the day of arrival, if the appropriate Box Office is closed, a Season Ticket receipt itself can be used to gain access to events.

If requested, Advance Event Tickets purchased before 16th July wil have been posted to the address you gave when booking; otherwise they will be held at the Festival Box Office, or Campsite Reception, as per your selection when booking. From 16th July onwards, they will be held for collection at the Tourist Information Centre (TIC) until 4.00pm on 29th July, and from 30th July at the Festival Box Office. Event tickets purchased online from 16th July onwards can be collected from the Festival Box Office from 30th July. Tickets not collected up to 1 hour before the event can be collected at the venue. (The collection point for Ham Marquee events is the Festival Box Office).

Sponsorship, Grants and Donations

Sidmouth Town Council

Sidmouth Town Council has again confirmed vitally important Festival support, demonstrating the importance of this internationally renowned event to the town as a resort and to its businesses. Town Council support has enabled us to develop the Children's Festival, our Social Dance offering and our main venue programmes.

All areas of the Festival benefit from this support, as does the Festival's organisational structure and its Marketing, particularly our rapidly growing Social media coverage, with a reach of over 2m during festival week.

Devon County Council

We are grateful to our Devon County Council Member Stuart Hughes's Locality fund for its support of the Festival, which is a major West Country event and particularly important to Devon. County support helps us strengthen our main concert programme and provide for new Young People's initiatives.

Middle Bar Singers' Reunion Weekend

During the year, a number of events take place which raise funds for the Festival, in particular the Middle Bar Singers Reunion Weekend in February, not forgetting to mention their collections during the Festival. Many thanks to the singers and their supporters and to all other individuals and organisations making donations to Sidmouth Folk Week.

East Devon District Council

East Devon District Council gives assistance in support services and facilities, enabling the complex task of running this large Festival to be undertaken more effectively. EDDC departments also give advice and support and we are grateful to the Council leaders, Executive and their support staff for this.

EFDSS

Thanks to The English Folk Dance and Song Society (EFDSS) who curate another series of Folk Rising Plus concerts, Open Mics at Betsy's Lounge and a Showcase of their Bursary recipients Rowan Piggott, India Electric Co., and Tom Moore & Archie Churchill-Moss.

The funding for the fireworks comes from a variety of Sidmouth businesses, kindly co-ordinated by Colin Pyne of The Bedford Hotel. We are most grateful to Colin for his hard work, and to the generous support of local businesses. A full list of these supporters will be published in the Sidmouth Herald.

Creative Scotland

We are grateful to Creative Scotland for their support of our Sounds Of Modern Scotland programme strand, showcasing emerging young Scottish artists including Kinnaris Quintet, Ryan Young, Tannara and Josie Duncan.
